North Ealing Primary School

Freedom of Information Act Publication Scheme

1. Introduction

The Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requires all public authorities (including schools) to adopt and maintain a publication scheme from 1 January 2009. The Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) developed a model policy and publication scheme for schools which was adopted for this policy by North Ealing Primary School. The policy will be reviewed regularly as part of the school's policy review program.

The policy commits the school to "produce and publish the method by which the specific information will be available so that it can be easily identified and accessed by members of the public". This information is provided in the attached guide to information.

2. Information included in the guide to information

The guide includes a list of the information that the school holds, how it will make the information routinely available, how the information can be accessed, whether or not a charge will be made for it and if so, what the cost will be. A copy of the FOIA policy is kept in the school office and is on the school website.

3. Fees and charging

Information through the school's publication scheme is readily available. It can be accessed through the school website at no charge or through the school office at a low charge. These charges are made for activities such as printing, photocopying and postage as well as information that the school is legally authorised to charge for. Anyone requesting information will be informed of any charge before the information is provided. The school may ask for payment before providing the information. Should the school receive a FOI request which requires significant staff time to prepare and compile the information a charge will be levied for time.

4. FOI requests and the publication scheme

It is important to note that the school's publication scheme sets out the information that is routinely available. Information that is not listed in the guide to information may still be requested and will be made available unless it can be legitimately withheld. Requests for information should be made to the Head Teacher or SBM.
